Brazos County's Showing of the Best Poultry--Drawing Crowds

The Sixth Annual Poultry Show Now in Full Swing--Attendance Far Exceeds Expectations of Those in Charge--Birds on Display Are an Inspiration to Poultry Raisers of This Section.

A visit to the Poultry Show now being held in the Parker Astin Warehouse will convince the most skeptical "there is a difference" in poultry, and that Brazos county can produce as fine birds as may be found anywhere. Notwithstanding the weather, over which no man has control, and which, Monday, seemed to indicate the impossibility of holding the show at all, the coops are full with other poultry pouring in, too late of course to enter birds for competition, but poultry raisers are taking advantage of the opportunity to advertise their birds to the thousands of people who will attend the show. With the coops all full, it takes but a little stretch of imagination to see how swamped the show management would have been in had it not been for the condition of the roads making it impossible for the Knob Prairie and Woodville club members and poultry raisers to come with their fine White Leghorns and Rhode Island Reds; Tabor with her Barred Rocks and S. C. White Leghorns; Kurten with her Anconas, White Leghorns, Barred Rocks, White Wyandotts and turkeys galore; Millican and Wellborn with birds that would shine in any show. Smetana with birds that have always won in the show ring; Harvey and Steep Hollow with Barred Rocks that have always been "too large"; Edge with a thousand White Leghorns among her club members.

STEEP HOLLOW LEADS

Mentioning none of the rest, what would the show have done with the birds from all these places? Certainly, it will serve to show what preparation must be made for future poultry shows in Brazos county. Perhaps Steep Hollow is, on account of the nearness to town, taking lead in birds from rural communities, Will Jones, Elmer Bullock and others showing some of the finest Reds in the country.

Expressions of Visitors.

Will T. Conaway of Reliance has an exhibit of Reds that would be a credit to any show. Fred Kohler is showing some Rhode Island Reds that would shine in Madison Square Garden. C. E. Jenkins seems to have a sort of "mania" for showing nothing but class quality; scrub poultry makes him "sick." V. J. Boriskie, manager of the show, has his egg-laying Barred Rocks, with a unique egg-record display showing the record by day and by month of his famous hen No. 173, Bingham poultry raiser has a number of fine exhibits, among them being a Bronze top tipping the beam high on to a half hundred. Wayne Davis is exhibiting a chicken-guinea fowl, a cross between a guinea and a Black Minorca. W. E. Graham of Bryan, Route 4, has a fine exhibit of White Rocks. All the fine exhibits can not be mentioned; it will take a visit to the poultry show to get anything like a correct idea of just what sort of birds are being shown. "It is wonderful," "I had no idea there were such fine birds in Brazos county," "There is no doubt about the progress being made," "This is the greatest work the people of the county ever undertook," "The progress being made is a revelation." These are some of many expressions made by visitors to the show. Don't fail to make a visit to this wonderful show. Read the program for special features, lectures, etc.

Membership Campaign.

Mrs. J. L. Broach is in charge of the membership campaign and will have a booth at the show. Everybody who wants to see the poultry industry thrive and prosper in Brazos county should join the Brazos County Poultry Association, whether you raise poultry or not, the organization needs your moral support and your dollar in cash. Don't wait to be asked to join. The membership list will be printed later. Will your "name lead all the rest?"

PARTY OF MARINES FOREIGN GUNBOATS TAKE CUSTOM HOUSE

(By Associated Press)
HONG KONG, Dec. 5.—Parties of marines from foreign gun boats anchored off Canton are reported to have taken possession of the custom house there. The troops are said to be equipped with machine guns. The stronghold of Sun Yat Sen, the South China leader, his foe, having been the scene of much internal disturbances during the past few months.

BRYAN ROTARY CLUB WEDNESDAY HONOR BRYAN HIGH SQUAD

The Bryan High football squad were guests at the Bryan Rotary Club at their Wednesday luncheon. The program for the day was in charge of Superintendent Madison Hall. Superintendent Hall in a five minute talk explained the interest of the Bryan High School in the physical development of all its students, stating that it was the intention next year to have a director of physical education. He spoke of the loyalty and co-operation on the part of the students of the schools in supporting the football team. He then introduced David Bunting, captain of the team; Stuart Cole, Bill Oliver, Ben Kaplan and Miss Ruby Boriskie, sponsor of the team, all of whom made short and appropriate talks. Ralph Turner, on the coaching staff of the Bryan High team, was also called upon for a short talk. The address to the boys was made by Hon. Oak McKenzie, who in well chosen words eulogized the fighting spirit of the Bryan High aggregation and prophesied a brilliant future for them.

Manager Jones Talks.

Rotarian Forrest Jones was then introduced by the chairman as being the most successful business manager of athletics in the State of Texas. The boys showed their appreciation of the services rendered by Mr. Jones by rising to their feet and by a request that he be their manager for the ensuing year. Hon. F. L. Henderson, president of the school board, spoke on the policy of the board toward athletics.

Attention was called that Saturday, December 8, is tag day for the Boy Scouts, and all were asked to give their assistance in putting over a big tag day.

The following were present: W. S. Barron, C. L. Beason, C. S. Beck with S. M. Bird, J. W. Black, Wilson Bradley, J. F. Casey, Gabe Cazell, W. J. Coulter, W. B. Cline, S. E. Eberstadt, J. H. CLOCK WITH SWEET CHIMES PROVES BUSINESS HAS GREAT CONSCIENCE

Bryan and her interests are not forgotten in Baltimore, Md., as will be seen by the following letter from Prof. R. O. Allen, who, with Mrs. Allen, is spending the winter there. "Dear Mrs. Rountree: One morning recently, as we passed out of the yard, on our way to the early morning train, Mrs. Allen stooped down and picked up the evening paper. On the train, she unrolled it and read with evident interest. "I have something in the Eagle that I want to read to you, but not tonight," she said. "The following day, on the long run between Houston and New Orleans, Mrs. Allen took from the grip the Bryan Eagle and read me the piece about the new City National Bank clock and the Eagle! Good for the City National folks! Good for the people of Bryan!" I said.

"Good for Mrs. Rountree and the Eagle; for when a local paper picks out from the mass of occurrences the things that are really worthwhile and gives these things of good report wide publicity, everybody is helped and the paper becomes a powerful factor for moral betterment in the community.

"Good for the City National folks—for it is good to have business men show that trade, that business has a heart, conscience, a regard for the man in the streets. How

MRS. WALDROP LEADER OF CLUB PROGRAM ON POLITICAL PARTIES

Wednesday at 3 p. m. the Woman's Club met in regular weekly session with a full attendance. Mrs. W. B. Cline, president in the chair, the secretary, Mrs. Marshall Dansby, at the desk and the treasurer present to report on financial affairs of the club, the business session was dispatched quickly. At this meeting, Mrs. M. P. Walker was appointed by the president as club time keeper, in order that the business and study features of the club program may each have the allotted time, and that in round table discussion the speakers may not exceed their appointed number of minutes. The resignation of Mrs. W. D. Spence was read and accepted with sincere regret, for she has meant much to the club during her presence as a member. Mrs. F. M. Miller of Jacksonville, Ill., a cousin of Mrs. W. S. Howell, who is spending the month in Texas as her guest, was an appreciated visitor of the afternoon.

Mrs. Waldrop Leader.

Mrs. A. M. Waldrop, leader of the program, then took charge. As it said, a more delightful program has not been enjoyed in the Woman's Club in many months, than that of Wednesday afternoon, when "National Capital, National Political Organizations" was the subject. Mrs. Waldrop in giving a most excellent paper on "The History of the National Capital," gave accurate history in such an interesting manner, and wove into the story, romance and legend so artfully that her hearers were charmed with every word. This was the only paper on the program but it covered the subject, and was thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Hendrix Conway delighted the audience with a brilliant piano number, an instrumental gem, taken from an old group of negro melodies of the river bottoms of the Carolinas. As leader of the round table discussion, Mrs. Waldrop invited the following members to assist, each one giving answer to one question asked on the subject of the afternoon: Mesdames J. N. Goodwin, J. M. Ferguson, W. B. Cline, H. C. Fulgham, R. S. Webb, C. S. Gainer, A. K. Brown, T. S. Lundine, Will Hall, C. A. Searcy, John A. Held, P. G. Gunter, M. E. Wallace.

On next Wednesday the Woman's Club will hold its last meeting before the holidays. This will be an open meeting, featuring a Christmas program, with Mrs. Tyler Haswell as leader. Mrs. W. S. Howell, Mrs. F. L. Henderson will compose the house committee for that date.

MAYFIELD IS SWORN IN AS U. S. SENATOR

(By Mark L. Goodwin)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Oath of office as a member of the United States Senate from Texas was administered to Earle B. Mayfield of Austin, together with other newly elected Senators, in the Senate chamber shortly after the noon hour Monday, as an incident to the organization of the Senate of the Sixty-Eighth Congress.

Announcement of Mr. Mayfield's name by the reading clerk of the Senate created no more than passing interest, and he quickly left his seat to join Senator Morris Sheppard, the senior Senator, and be escorted to the presiding officer. The oath was administered to four Senators at a time.

After gathering at the main entrance door of the chamber, where the formality took on handshaking the quartet of new members with their escorts moved down the center aisle to the left of the platform.

There was more handshaking as Senator Cummins of Iowa greeted the parties, following which was the administration of the constitutional oath, and this in turn was followed by each Senator signing the printed oath in a bound book. Mr. Mayfield, who now has all of the rights and standing as a Senator, resumed his seat at the extreme right of the first row of desks on the Democratic side and that occupied by former Attorney General of the United States Garland while a member from Arkansas.

Immediately to Mr. Mayfield's right sits former Governor Ralston of Indiana, who in stature and physiognomy reminded the older observers of the late Grover Cleveland.

The next seat beyond is occupied by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts. One of the first to greet the new Texas Senator after he had resumed his seat was Senator Hefflin of Alabama.

Mayfield Telegraphs Son. After the formal roll call Senator Mayfield left the chamber to send the following telegram to his son, John Mayfield, a junior at the Texas University, who was 19 years old Monday: "On this, your nineteenth birthday, I have just taken the oath of office as United States Senator from our native State. I extend congratulations upon your reaching your nineteenth milestone of life. May Divine Providence guard you in all your aspirations."

Gus Robertson of Cross, Grimes county, was in Bryan today. He made the trip through in his car, and says the road was bad. Recent rains and the heavy travel over the roads at all times has cut deep ruts, which in some places are still muddy and in other places rough and hard.

FORD-FOR-PRESIDENT CLUB CALLED TEXAS WITH 21 STATES TO BE THERE

Delegates Assemble Detroit December 12th to Determine Best Methods of Advancing Ford's Campaign--Twenty-One States Favor Ford According to William Kronberg, Secretary.

(By Associated Press).

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 6.—Delegates to the conference here December 12 for a Ford-for-President clubs called according to its sponsors to determine the best methods of advancing Henry Ford for president, will face a fight at the very outset, according to information reaching local Ford supporters. The fight, it is indicated, will come between those factions supporting a third party movement, and those favoring Ford as democratic standard bearer. Acceptances to the conference here have already been received from 21 states, according to William Kronberg, secretary of the allied Ford-for-President clubs. Texas is among those accepting.

"SIX CYLINDER LOVE" STORY MODERN LIFE COLLEGE DECEMBER 11

How many evils of the present age are laid at the door of the automobile! The "gasoline buggy" has become a necessity, not a luxury, and the things people will do to possess it are inconceivable.

"Six Cylinder Love," which will be given Tuesday, December 11, at Guion Hall, College, by the Percival Vivian players, is a comedy of today, all about the joys and sorrows it brought to two families. When the play opens the innocent machine is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Burton, who have enjoyed it to such an extent with their family and friends, that they have mortgaged their home and lost all their money, and are forced to sell the automobile in order to meet expenses. An enterprising salesman, who originally had made the sale to Mr. Burton, cleverly engineers the forced sale to a newly married couple next door, who are perfectly enraptured with their purchase.

It develops that the "friends" who had enjoyed the car with the Burtons and consistently snubbed the newly-weds, become boon companions of theirs after the car is in their possession. A gay round of motor parties, meals "Out," and dancing all night at road houses follow. Young husband becomes more and more involved until his employer discovers that he has used funds from the office to meet the bills. The splendid climax of the play comes when young Starling realizes what he is doing and denounces the whole business.

How they go back to a little flat, four flights up, just across from their former neighbors, the Burtons, and the subsequent straightening out of their badly mangled affairs, brings to a close one of the greatest stories of modern life on the stage. There is so much fun in it, and yet so much human nature and good sound truths that is something that everybody enjoys to the fullest. It had long runs in New York and Chicago, and only late last season was put on the road, so that it comes as a new play for Lyceum audiences. The play was written by Anthony McGuire.

The cast has been chosen by Mr. Vivian, a veteran in stage production, with a view to giving affiliated audiences a play that will equal any that is produced in the larger city theatres. The company was coached under the personal direction of Mr. Vivian, who has been associated with the best actors of recent years, playing important roles in their companies.

TAX REVISION BILL MAY BRING ON FIGHT

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The Treasury Department already has drafted and sent to the Capitol a bill embodying Secretary Mellon's suggestions for tax revision, which will serve as basis for committee consideration in the House. The fight over treasury proposals has been brewing for several weeks. The early presentation of the revision measure is expected to bring the issue to the front at the very outset of the session.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION TOPIC DR. M'FAYDEN FOR SUNDAY ADDRESS

(From Monday's Daily).

Yesterday was Christian Education Sunday with the Presbyterians of this city, and despite the inclement weather, that denomination was well represented at the services, both morning and evening.

Rev. H. R. McFayden, of Cameron, was the speaker of the day. "To achieve success," said the Reverend McFayden, in the course of his morning address, "this convention calls for the co-operation of every Presbyterian man and woman in Texas. This is no time for little thinking." He pointed out that other denominations of the State have accomplished as much or more than is now being undertaken by the Presbyterians. "I am unthinkably that the Presbyterians alone are not equal to their share of the task of the religious problems of the world," he said.

Interests Involved.

The interests involved are: Austin College Sherman; Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Austin; Daniel Baker College, Brownwood; Southwestern Presbyterian Home and School for Orphans, Itasca; Texas Presbyterian College, Milford; Texas-Mexican Industrial Institute, Kingsville; Presbyterian School for Mexican Girls, Taft; Church for University Students, Austin; Presbyterian work at College of Industrial Arts, and North Texas State Normal, Denton; Work among Presbyterian students at normal school centers at Commerce, San Marcos and Huntsville; Presbyterian work at A. and M. College, College Station.

"All of these institutions are suffering from a lack of resources to maintain their work," the speaker pointed out. "Some of them are in dire need; some have kept alive by the sacrifice of underpaid and overworked men and women. They need buildings, equipment, additional teachers and income producing endowment to continue their work."

Prayer Meetings Arranged.

Under the leadership of Mrs. R. L. Brogdon, chairman of the Prayer Meeting Committee, it has been arranged to have cottage prayer meetings during the intensive canvass.

The ladies of the east side will meet at the home of Mrs. Jno K. Parker at three o'clock Thursday and Friday of this week, and with Mrs. H. J. Stone leader for Thursday, and Mrs. L. L. McInnis, Friday leader. At the same hour, the west side ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Marten with Mrs. S. C. Hoyle leader for Thursday and Mrs. Chas. Marten leader for Friday.

WELLBORN COMMUNITY CLUB Will Give "Clubbing a Husband" Fri. night, December 21.

Mrs. Alma Ernst McManus and Terbert Ernst have returned from Kerrville where they have been for the past few months. They are with their parents, Prof. and Mrs. Anton Ernst.

Chas. F. Hillier was called to Hearne last night to prepare for interment the body of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rhea, shipment being made to Plano for burial.

LET'S CO-OPERATE

Senator Capper of Kansas has been making a great number of speeches on co-operation, particularly in the form of co-operative marketing. He says where the individual is helpless the group can protect itself and again the larger the group the more closely it can be brought together. We believe fully with Senator Capper that co-operation is necessary, if great things are to be done. We do not limit co-operation however, to the narrow lines of protection, but would set it free in the broader lines of progress. The old expression "a push and a shove goes further than a knock" is another way of putting the same proposition. We believe that if men would stop thinking of protecting themselves but would by co-operation attempt to grow bigger and stronger, then there would be less need of protection. Co-operation is a big thing and because it is big it should not be used in the narrow sense. If everyone in Bryan would co-operate in every undertaking for the growth and betterment of the city, then there would be a little need of protection that there would be nothing about it.

Progress, the result of co-operation is not on converging lines but on diverging lines and if the lines grow wider there is room for all and no crowding and no protection necessary.

Let's co-operate, but let's co-operate for progress and not for protection.

MANY FAMILIAR NAMES

Taken from the files of the Houston Post, December 5, 1898, twenty-five years ago: "Among the appointments of the preachers made by Bishop Galloway at the close of the session of the Texas Methodist conference here today were the following: Rev. G. A. Leclerc, presiding elder of the Austin district; Rev. H. M. Whaling, Tenth Street church, Austin; Rev. E. L. Shettles, Hotchkiss Memorial; Rev. E. W. Solomon, presiding elder, Brenham district; Rev. J. L. Massey, Brenham; Rev. H. C. Willis, Caldwell; Rev. J. B. Sears, Cameron; Rev. H. M. Sears, presiding elder, Calvert district; Rev. James Kilgore, Calvert; Rev. Weems Wooten, Marlin; Rev. J. W. Cullen, Lott; Rev. C. B. Garrett, Hearne; Rev. O. T. Hotchkiss, presiding elder, Houston district; Rev. Seth Ward, Sharn church, Houston; Rev. J. W. Horn, Washington Street; Rev. John E. Green, McKee Street; Rev. D. H. Hotchkiss, Tabernacle; Rev. C. J. Oxley, St. James, Galveston; Rev. W. B. Bradford, St. John's, Galveston; Rev. S. W. Thomas, Richmond; Rev. John W. Bergin, Alvin; Rev. T. S. Willford, Columbia; Rev. J. R. Murray, Wharton; Rev. J. C. Mickle, presiding elder, Huntsville district; Rev. E. P. Newsom, Huntsville; Rev. C. A. Hooper, Navasota; Rev. G. H. Phair, Hempstead; Rev. R. W. Adams, Willis; Rev. C. U. Mc Larty, Dodge."

No town is greater than its citizenship. Bryan is just as fine, just as big and just as great as its citizens make it. Everyday we hear some man or woman condemning Bryan for this, that and the other. I wonder if they ever stop to remember that they are a part of Bryan, that this is their town, yours and mine, and they are condemning the citizens of Bryan, not the city, because the citizenship is nothing but the city. Perhaps the criticism may be true—but is that the way to remedy it? Are you satisfied with the part you have played in making Bryan? Then if not, it is up to you to get busy. For it is an alert, progressive, intelligent citizenship that can push Bryan to the front. A selfish, self-satisfied, ax-grinding fault-finding one will hold it back. No town is greater than its citizens. Think it over.

SUCCESSFUL SALESMANSHIP

You may not credit yourself with being a saleswoman or a salesman but you are. All of us are selling something. It may not be merchandise but you and I are selling our ideas, our desires, even ourselves to our customer, or our friends. And just how well we sell them determines how great our success. Since this salesmanship comes only through one's own efforts, it behooves each of us to strive always to be cheerful, courteous and kind.

Bryan and Brazos county friends are rejoicing over the fact that R. F. McSwain of Wellborn, a Brazos county boy, finished second in the file of individuals competing at the International College Students Livestock Judging Contest held at Chicago last Saturday. This is an honor and signal victory to win in a contest with representatives from fifteen other states competing. We are proud of you, Ross McSwain, and Bryan and Brazos county citizens congratulate you.

Now that winter weather has set in the paved streets are proving their worth. Just as the demand has been for paved streets in town, just such a demand should be created for passable highways all over the county. Such weather as this makes us feel the need of concrete highways—good in any kind of weather.

Now that the football season has officially closed, perhaps some of the boys will tackle English and enter a forward pass on mathematics.

IS IT WORTH WHILE?

The pessimist is constantly asking, "Is it worth while?" Today in making my rounds, I heard several ask this question in one form or another and the reason for the question just now was, as they expressed it, "Thousands of dollars spent for football." To us it seems that this money has in no sense been wasted, but rather on the contrary been rather well-spent. When the nation is too old to play, when men forget how to play, then we are in a sorry plight.

Better still then play, is the fact that the life of a young man is in miniature his future life. If he has ambitions, if he wishes to be great he must struggle and sometimes the struggle is titanic. When better can he learn how to struggle with both mind and body than on the football field? I know of no better place to learn. Football players must use both brains and muscles. He must live a clean life for the sake of his muscles and he must think quickly, on the spur of the moment. Each and every one of these attributes are necessary for leadership in the great battle of life and those young men who fought the "good fight" Thursday, no matter on what field, have learned to use these faculties well. Better still, one half of them have learned to take defeat without a murmur and to plan for the next battle. I firmly believe that it is very much worth while, this great spending of money.

PERSONALITY A FACTOR

Joseph Herschel Coffin says, "I take the view that personality is the biggest factor in the universe." We agree with Mr. Coffin in this statement if he will not admit that personality means selfishness. Some persons are so afraid of their personality, so careful of their personality, that they jealously guard it and become indignant if another should show symptoms of other personalities. Personality, we believe, is that individualism which God gave to all of us, each in a different way, for the bigger, broader, better world. As our faces are not alike, nor our forms, neither are our individual attainments. We believe that life is best represented by great mosaic pictures made up of myriad tiny stones—each plays its part. These stones are held together, not with cement, but are in place because none are missing. The tiny green stones in the corner, insignificant as it may seem is absolutely necessary for the picture. Take it out and there is a movement of every stone, just enough to blur and spoil the picture. Each one through his personality has his appointed task and because of that personality he or you can do no better than another. If we would live up to our personality, be satisfied with what that personality can do, then this old world would be a harmonious picture. There would be no blurring, there would be no movement out of joint, but a perfect picture that would last through the ages.

A FREE MORAL AGENT

Is George Bailey of the Houston Post a pessimist or has his turnip green "laid heavy" on his digestion of late? He says "The old doctrine that man is a free moral agent is obsolete. Reform has curtailed his freedom and hypocrisy has smothered his morality." No, decidedly not! Man is still a free agent and reform can never curtail our freedom. It may and does curtail license, which is far from freedom. Hypocrisy has been rampant from the beginning, when God called Cain to produce his brother, hypocrisy showed its face first in the history of creation. Hypocrisy, we believe, is the refuge of weaklings and immoral agents. We do not believe that the world is hypocritical or that most of the people are. We do think that men hide their feelings but do not lie about them. No, George, we are still for the old doctrine that men are free moral agents. A better digestion will make you see the light, we think.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY

"Do your Christmas shopping early" is a slogan we have heard for many, many years and yet each year it takes much reasoning power to convince the average shopper that there is a personal profit to be gained. Even if this was not true out of consideration for the merchants and their sales people we should shop early. Most people have a regard for other peoples' comfort and convenience and when we don't show it, it is usually from thoughtlessness. Now the season is on "Do your Christmas shopping early" and do it through the advertising columns of the Eagle. Bryan advertisers will tell complete stories of their wonderful offerings of appropriate gifts. Read them and profit by them. New let's all bestir ourselves and give a thought for others as well as our own advantages and do our shopping early.

Former State Senator Vinson A. Collins of Dallas who some weeks ago announced that he would be a candidate for governor in next year's election, Saturday made public his formal platform. Already next year's campaign is warming up and it promises to be a hot one. The more the merrier. Jump in, the waters fine.

We live in deeds, not years—thoughts, not breaths; In feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart throbs. He most lives Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best.—Bailey.

Spend your money in the town where you earn your living is good advice. If you do that you will always keep your town the kind you can make a living in. And spend your money with the live wide-awakes, they deserve it.

He who can conceal his joys is greater than he who can hide his griefs.—Lavater.

EXTENSION SERVICE MONTHLY LUNCHEON PROVES A SUCCESS

The Extension Service monthly luncheon was held at the Mess Hall Monday as usual, and an excellent repast was served which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Group No. 5 had charge of the program and Miss Virginia West had been selected to act as chairman. Probably the most enjoyable feature of the program was the music furnished by a stringed orchestra composed of the following cadets: J. W. Dorsey, H. E. Belcher, O. Zappe, C. R. Dockum and O. P. McCarty.

A. L. Ward, general chairman for the year, turned the meeting over to Miss Virginia West, the chairman of Group No. 5, immediately after the last course had been served, and she in turn turned the program over to John R. Edmonds.

The first number was "A Christmas Retrospection," by A. W. Buchanan, which consisted of a paraphrase of "The Night Before Christmas," dealt with in a humorous manner with the members of the staffs, creating many laughs.

J. E. Stanford then asked a number of questions, the answers to which hinged around the names of staff members. Ridiculous responses were made to these riddles and the prepared answers which were later given proved amusing and entertaining. Immediately after this Mr. Stanford read an article which proved that the Extension Service represents a farm since it has barns, homes, woods, dales, millers, etc., and the story was told in such a manner as to prove quite convincing and entertaining. This was followed by a song of Christmas Bells in which all joined, led by Mrs. Kate Lee Daugherty.

Santa Claus Appears.
Then came G. W. Orms, dressed as Santa Claus, carrying a large sack on his back. He gave a number of ridiculous presents to each staff member, treating them as children in his talk, the outstanding present being an almanac which was given to Sam E. Eberstadt, who was present. This was labeled the Constitution and By-Laws of the Ku Klux Klan, which created quite a laugh. Sam enjoying it as much as anyone present. There were a number of visitors present and everyone pronounced the program interesting and entertaining.

POST OFFICE HAS BIG DAY

Post Master Marvin F. Carroll reports the best day's business for the Bryan post office this year Saturday. Mail your Christmas packages early and avoid the rush.

Losing the glorious opportunity of filling your flabby lungs with the life-giving ozone so plentiful and so pure at the hour of sunrise, unpolluted by the fumes of gasoline coming from the back-firing of countless automobiles. Your eyes miss the glories of nature as displayed every twenty-four hours in the miracle of the rising sun as its rays transmute the dew drops into countless sparkling gems scintillating serene rays of beauty, health and happiness to the observer. In other words, why don't you get nerve enough to join the Early Riser Club and get great gobs of good health and also get into good company? President Coolidge has joined this club with us. Why not you?—Sam Miller, Mineral Wells Index.

That all sounds very nice in print, but Sam Miller neglected to tell us one thing, which is, to drink in the great draughts of fresh air and see the sunrise every morning we have to pay the price in physical discomfort at the time. Yes, we must pay the price. There is very little worth while in life for which we do not have to pay a price and most of us prefer not to do it. There is Sam Miller for instance. A man with the gifts he has might have been more than a good editor, he might have been governor. But to attain that position he must have paid a much greater price than he has paid to be an editor and Sam has not seen fit to pay it.

Sam Braswell, president, and Sam Harben, secretary, of the Texas Press Association, have formed a partnership in the publication of the Texas Christian Advocate, Methodist paper. Sam Braswell has sold the Clarendon News and will move to Richardson to take up the new work. Newspaper folks who know these two Sams know they will make a real success of the big undertaking. Just another instance where the "Sam Club" put it over.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, suffragist leader, must be hard to please politically, for she intimates neither Democrats nor Republicans have so far put a man forward big enough for the job.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY PARTY

(From Saturday's Daily).
Celebrating her seventh birthday, little Simmie Wheeler was a charming hostess on Friday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. C. Wheeler. The home was adorned with chrysanthemums and rose buds in honor of the day, and the good mother planned a program of entertainment for the guests which proved most enjoyable. There were games and music and various contests which pleased the children and made the afternoon one long to be remembered. Simmie's birthday cake with its seven burning tapers gave the usual joy and the children cut the loaf in search of the hidden secrets for good fortune. A brimming bowl of colonial punch from which the guests were served by Misses Lillie Rush Walker, Lois Spell and Imaree Wheeler, was another pleasing feature to the hour. Many beautiful birthday gifts were received by the little hostess. Those present were: Margaret Ann Fairman, Mary Bess Murray, Alice Hamilton, Ruth Patterson, Louise, Leila and Doris Meacham, Margaret Walker, Mildred Reed, Mildred Smith, Lily Janick, Lily Kaplan, Louise Bond, Dorothy Davis, Ruth Beard, Pauline Scardino, Nellie Mae Spell, Genevieve Barron, Dorothy Edgington, Elizabeth Holmes, Annie Ruth Ware, Agnes Marie White, Marjorie Ramsey, Billy Holmes, Billy Patterson, Joe White, James Earl Wallace, Ned Dunaway, Robert Charles Trant, Holway Hughes, Gilbert Held, R. V. Worden and Monnie Wheeler. Mrs. Wheeler was assisted in entertaining the guests by Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Thompson and Mrs. Phillip Trant.

CHAMBER DIRECTORS MAKE $100 DONATION TO GOOD CHEER ASSO.

The Chamber of Commerce made a gift of one hundred dollars to the Bryan County Good Cheer Association at the board of directors meeting this morning. This money will go to carry Santa Claus and a Christmas spirit of good cheer into the homes of Bryan and Brazos county that otherwise would be lacking.

It was the unanimous vote of the directors that no more regular meetings be held until Tuesday, January 8th, 1924. This action was taken on account of the busy holiday rush.

Secretary Sam E. Eberstadt reported for the advertising committee that $375 worth of advertising schemes which had no merit had been turned down. Six solicitors who could not show proper credentials failed to get recommendations. The citizens of Bryan can render valuable assistance to the committee by always asking every solicitor who comes to your door: "Have you the endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce?" If they can not produce it, it goes without saying they are not worthy. Show your loyalty to Bryan and the Chamber of Commerce by co-operating.

MRS. BUCHANAN CHIEF SPEAKER CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETING

(From Monday's Daily).
The Christian Endeavor Society of the Free Baptist church held a splendid meeting last evening at 8:45 at the church. Despite the very inclement weather a large crowd was present to hear the program arranged by the young women of the society. A weekly contest is going on between the young women and the young men of this organization as to which will have the largest numbers in attendance. With Miss Lena Wooten as president, this society is alive with interest and is doing a great work for the spiritual and social life of the Free Baptist church.

On Sunday evening, Mrs. C. B. Thompson was leader of the program and made an interesting talk, introducing the subject for the evening, which was "Obedience." The scripture lesson was Psalm 40, and was read by Miss Ruby Wheeler. By special invitation, Mrs. Albert Buchanan brought the message of the hour, taking for her subject "The Life of Obedience." Mrs. R. M. Damsby favored the audience with a vocal solo. "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," with Mrs. Walter Holmes as accompanist. At the close of the program the meeting was turned over to the president, Miss Lena Wooten, who concluded with a few timely words in regard to the work of the Christian Endeavors.

DRAMATIC CLUB BANQUET A SUCCESS

Last night at the Green Parrot Tea Room the Dramatic Club of Allen Academy had its first banquet of the year. The table was beautifully decorated with large yellow chrysanthemums and blue ribbons. The streamers extended the length of the table and the handsome chrysanthemums added an additional beauty. There were twenty-two at the table. A real home dinner was served, the menu as follows: Oyster soup, creamed turkey on toast, string beans, creamed potatoes, hot rolls, custard pudding with whipped cream and coffee.

After the dinner was over Prof. W. L. Harrington, the director of the club and the host of the evening, made a talk outlining the work which has already been done on the new play "Richeieu."

Music was furnished by a colored orchestra with "Jazz" in plenty. The following were the guests: William Scott, W. I. Sparks, William P. Reagan, Frank McFartridge Jr., J. J. O'Hara Jr., Buddy Copeland, Wm. W. Allen, Earl Tatum, Robert Brandt, Sherman Birdwell, B. R. Davis, A. Brand, A. B. Moncrief, M. M. Baker, G. B. Butler, Earl J. Stouffey, G. E. Wheeler, Wylmer L. Wright, William Dunnam, Fred Pearson and Tom Q. Williams.

THE ACADEMY TITLE

It seems that Allen Academy of Bryan, winner of the championship of the Texas Academy Athletic Conference last year, has best claim to the title again this year. Wednesday San Marcos Baptist Academy and Allen Academy battled to a scoreless tie in a sea of mud. It was the first tie game in the conference for the Allen boys. All of their other conference games were victories. San Marcos tied Terrill of Dallas, which was defeated by the Dallas Academy, and Allen won from the latter team. Allen also defeated the Texas School for the Deaf, while the Mutes won one game from the San Marcos club and lost another. The first, however, was said to be a practice game. On the face of it, it seems that Allen has the better record, and is again deserving of the title. With little material, Coach Hudson developed a splendid team at Allen Academy this year, and is deserving of a higher place in the football world.—Jinx Tucker.

PRESBYTERIAN HELP CHRISTIAN EDUCATION BRYAN'S PART $6,000

At a meeting of the executive committee in charge of the Bryan Presbyterian Movement for Christian Education, it was decided to raise $6,000 as their part of the $1,350,000 to be given the educational institutions so essential to the Presbyterians in Texas.

It was pointed out by Mr. McElroy, manager of city campaigns, that the amount was only one half the suggested goal that has been worked out by the central committee on a membership basis, but in view of the fact that this church is in the midst of an extensive building program, it was decided by the committee that the goal here should be set at a low figure, and an effort made to exceed that goal as far as possible.

"From now on until the actual solicitation starts," said Mr. Seale, chairman of the executive committee, "we expect to use every possible means in putting this cause clearly and squarely before the Presbyterians of Bryan. We have always stressed Christian education, and among the things in which we have taken pride is our chain of Christian colleges. I think it is Christian citizenship that moves us to unite as Presbyterians in a common effort to strengthen our schools and colleges for the good of our church."

Work has been started in securing team heads and teams for the actual solicitation of the money. On account of this being an educational campaign, the chairman of this work will be known as a dean. Under the dean will be the professors, and under the professors, the students. The chairman of the organization committee will be the president of the college. F. D. Fuller, chairman of the organization committee, states that he will be able to announce the workers within the next few days.

Poultry Show On.

The poultry show will be on this week, and while the roads may be a little bad, yet the inability to do other work should favor attendance on the poultry show. First, every one having what they term standard bred poultry should make exhibit in order that the best comparisons may be made and clearer conceptions formed in our own minds of what poultry should be. Then we can get busy in building up the greatest poultry industry possible in Brazos county. The opportunity is ours, if we will only take advantage of what is ours. Let us attend the poultry show and help boost better poultry for Brazos county. Don't fail to be present, when Secretary S. E. Eberstadt turns loose the chickens with money prizes.

Co-Operation Makes Better Prices.

Farm Bureau News announces that the Cotton Association will distribute to its members on December 15, $5,841,797.61, bringing the total advance to date of $100 per bale. The News quotes Lynn P. Talley, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board of the Eleventh District Bank and reserve agent, as saying, concerning co-operative marketing of cotton: "The greater tendency on the part of the farmer to place his crop on the market in an orderly manner, both individually and through co-operative societies, has enabled them to receive a higher general price for their product."

Club Work Helpful.

One of the things club work should be credited for, but which cannot be shown in reports, is the kindling of ambition to render a helpful service in the world, and the consciousness of the importance of the service brings the thought of thorough preparation for life's work as the following clipping from American Farming will tend to show:

Club Girls Help Education.

Among the items reported by Alabama Home Demonstration Agents none are more interesting than those pertaining to the work being done by club members in assisting others to get an education.

One agent reported that the girls of her county had donated $50 to enable a four-year club member to go to college and that an equal amount had been given by the county fair association.

Another made a report of a dumb girl being sent to college and also of a club member who is receiving support from different sources while going to school.

A third told of a girl whose splendid club work attracted attention with the result that she was given an opportunity to get an education by being taken into the home of a very desirable family.

One-fifth of the girls attending school at Auburn are former club members and all of them have been assisted in one way or another by Home Demonstration Agents in getting to college.—Miss Agnes Ellen Harris, State Home Demonstration Agent, Auburn, Ala.

All clubs expecting to compete for the state championship, for which a $225 radio outfit will be given, should get their reports in this week, as the contest for the radio outfit closes on December 10. All clubs should get busy in this contest, especially Tabor, Edge, Kurten and Milliken. Brazos county has held the championship in club work in Texas for the past two years. We should not now lose through failure to show the records we have made. Remember, if a Brazos county club wins this year, the secretary of the winning club will receive ten dollars in gold.

When Opportunity Knocks.

Farm and Ranch in speaking editorially on "When Opportunity Knocks," advises that "cotton farmers who have profited by a fair production and good prices should not re-invest everything in cotton. The prices of cotton is not always going to top 30 cents, or even 25 or 20 cents. If history is repeated, it may reach a level where it is unprofitable to produce it. The farmer who fixes up his place and stocks it, with in reason, with purebreds, and has learned to provide himself with other and more regular sources of income, will be the prosperous citizen of the community some day. The one crop planter will have had his day, and will have nothing to talk about but the time when he made a third of a bale per acre and sold it at $150 per bale. His money will have been spent and his income reduced. Every gambler has gone broke who played the game long enough, and the one crop planter is just as much of a gambler as the man who sits around the ring in the cotton exchanges and gets on the course the market will take.

A monthly income, though small—something to sell on every trip to town—has brought more comforts into the farm home than once a year income from a single crop over any period of years that can be selected."

Jim Kurten Heard From.

Jim Kurten writes from Kansas City that he is having a fine time en route to Chicago playing snow ball with the girls in the "squat" state. Jim was due to arrive in Chicago Sunday night at 9 p. m.

Wellborn Community Club.

The Wellborn Community Club will give at its next regular meeting, the third Friday night, December 22, a play entitled, "Clubbing a Husband." Sounds natural to many of us, but let's all attend the show and see how real to life it is played.

If you have some fine cockerels for breeding purposes, bring them to the poultry show and put them into the auction sale. If they are good they will, likely, bring the price. If they are not good, they should not be sold for breeding stock at any price.

Boottlegging Poultry.

C. E. Jenkins, vice president of the Brazos County Poultry Association, thinks there is a lot of "bootlegging" going on in the poultry business in Texas, and, no doubt, he is correct. He suggests as a remedy for this the establishment of accredited flocks in Brazos county. This is a good worthy our greatest consideration and heartiest co-operation. Mr. Jenkins thinks that 200-egg hens are scarce, and that practically there are no 200-egg strains, and that because a 200-egg hen happens to be in a flock, does not justify the owner to advertise a 200-egg strain.

QUAIL SEASON OPEN

The quail season opened Saturday but a constant downpour of rain throughout the day and Sunday and Monday made the most of the birds safe at least for a day or two longer. Many of the local hunters had planned trips but most of them were kept home by bad weather. Today the sun is shining and if the birds know what is good for them, they had better stay under cover. Reports as to the number of birds in the county conflict; some say there is a large crop, others tell us the crop is not so good as in former years.

BRYAN HIGH SCHOOL REPRESENTED TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle.) BELTON, Tex., Dec. 5.—More than 100 delegates are expected at the second convention of the Texas High School Press Association which will meet at Baylor College, Belton, December 7 and 8. Twenty-one high schools who were not members of the association last year have indicated that they will send representatives. Students from schools as far away as El Paso will attend the convention. Bryan High School will be represented.

Nearly 100 entries were received in the contests which the association conducted. This increased number of entries necessitated the obtaining of nine judges instead of three as last year. All the judges with the exception of one live out of the State. The faculty of the University of Oklahoma will act as judges in one of the contests. Other judges are: Otis Lorton, managing editor, Tulsa Daily World; Harry Jolly, publisher, Carnegie Herald, Carnegie, Okla.; H. G. Spaulding, publisher, Shawnee Morning News; J. J. Newland, editor, Frederick Leader; L. B. Nichols, Lincoln County Republican, Chanler, Okla.; A. W. Grant, managing editor, San Antonio Express.

Baylor College will entertain all delegates while at the convention. The Matrix and Press Club, journalistic societies of the college, are planning the entertainment which will include a play, a newspaper reception, a banquet, and a trip to Temple to inspect the Temple Telegram.

Officers of the association are: President, Clyde Cox, Fort Worth; vice president, Ray Johnson, Mineral Wells; record secretary, John Canaday, San Antonio; corresponding secretary, Virginia Mitchell, Temple; treasurer, Delane Maedgen, Brownwood.

COUNTY HEALTH WORK SHOWS GREAT GAIN UNDER MISS CURTIS

The regular monthly meeting of the County Health Committee, was held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the court house, in the office of the county health nurse, Miss Elizabeth Curtis. Mrs. Tyler Haswell, chairman of the committee presided, and the following members were present: Mrs. J. L. Brock, Mrs. Harry McDowell, Mrs. Albert Buchanan, Bryan, and Mrs. A. H. Leidigh of College. Miss Curtis was prevented from meeting with the committee on this occasion on account of attending at the same hour, the meeting of the Brazos-Robertson County Medical association in session in Bryan, before which she made an address, by special invitation. The work of the month, however, was gone over, the committee being highly pleased with the splendid progress being made by the Brazos county health nurse in carrying to the people the gospel of health through the school children at this time. The inclement weather has prevented Miss Curtis from making all the trips to schools she had hoped to make, but, has utilized the time in the schools of Bryan, and will visit every rural school in the county as the weather will permit. Arrangements have been made by the health committee, for Miss Curtis to speak before the various church organizations in Bryan, College and over the county. In this way, she will meet many people and become better acquainted with the mothers of the school children. Miss Curtis will be glad to make these health talks, at any time or place that may suit the women of the various committees, and will come at any time they may designate. A few little business items, such as Miss Curtis had found necessary to make her work the more beneficial, were attended to by the committee, after which the meeting adjourned, until next regular date, Saturday, January 5th, 1924.

A recent issue of the Austin American carried a picture of our fellow townsman, Lamar Bethea, as he looked in 1897-98 when he played left tackle for the Longhorns. The only objection to the article was Mr. Bethea was listed in the wrong classification, a leading physician of Bryan, when it should have been leading lawyer.

MUDVILLE SCHOOL BOX SUPPER BIG SUCCESS

As a result of school interest, so evident at this time among the schools of Brazos county, much progress is being made in the way of better equipment, better and more comfortable buildings and the beautifying of the school yards and property. Being aroused to this spirit of progress, the Mudville school, in the western part of the county, gave on last Friday night a box supper, which as a real success deserves special mention. Mrs. Richard Hearne, the teacher of the school, assisted by the pupils and patrons, planned this box supper. Boxes of "eats," to the number of fifteen, were prepared and readily sold for $55. A box of chocolate candy, when voted to the prettiest girl present, brought $39.15, and one cake was sold for $3.00, making the cash total realized from the evening's program $97.15.

By this method of raising funds for the benefit of the school, the Mudville school has already bought and paid for an organ, and has installed a gas lighting system in the school house. The money from the Friday night box supper will be used to purchase a sewing machine for the domestic arts class of girls, window shades for the school room and a chair for the teacher.

MUNICIPAL CHRISTMAS TREE FOR BRYAN ASSURED WHEN GOOD CHEER ASSOCIATION PLEDGED ITS SUPPORT

The Bryan and Brazos County Good Cheer Association held an enthusiastic meeting Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Carnegie Library, with the largest representative crowd present in its history. Mrs. J. L. Brock, president, presided and in a simple and convincing way presented the truths of what the association had accomplished during the past year. Some hundred families had been given aid, clothing, fuel and food, the sick had been provided with medicine, dying made comfortable, mothers and children separated had been reunited and many, many other things, which could not be recorded. "Protection is the watchword of our organization, not only from cold and hunger, but also from publicity," said Mrs. Brock, and for that reason we can not give to the public the details of individual cases.

Visualize if you can the state of affairs in these homes if there had been no Good Cheer Association or if there had been no funds whereby families could be aided in the hour of need. But then, why look on that side of the page, for there is a Good Cheer Association in Bryan, maintained by the generosity of the Bryan people, and it is its function and pleasure to help rehabilitate home life that has seemed to go on the rocks through need of financial aid at crucial moments. The time is now on for raising of funds to carry Santa Claus and a Christmas spirit of good cheer into the homes of those that otherwise would be lacking at this season and the interest and enthusiasm shown in the meeting Tuesday bespeaks a more generous response to the appeal than in the past, which has always been splendid.

BIG COLONY CHRISTIANIZED UNDER TEACHING OF WOMAN

An appeal from a Japanese colony at Terrey, Texas, came to the presiding elder of that district for a Christian missionary like those in Japan. He sent a general call for a Christian worker to fit this peculiar need and secured the services of Deaconess Cleta Kennedy, one of the workers under the Woman's Council. From the beginning of her work she won the hearts of the whole colony and one of the most remarkable evidences of their faith in the Christian religion was shown when the colony destroyed its idols and came in a body to receive Miss Kennedy's teachings. Such an event has never been paralleled in Southern Methodism.—Exchange.

Frequent Headaches

"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kincer, of R. F. D. 1, Cripple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. The headaches became very frequent. I heard of and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition."

Thedford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, when its torpid, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. It is the natural way. Be natural! Buy Black-Draught old everywhere.
